AFFIDAVIT

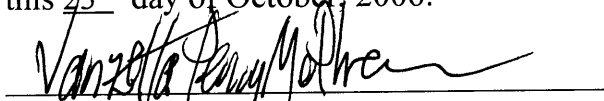

I, John Drew, having appeared before the undersigned United States Magistrate, and having been duly sworn, deposes and states:

I am a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Special Agent assigned to the Montgomery, Alabama District Office. I have been a law enforcement officer for approximately 23 years. On October 18, 2006, defendant Richard Evans went into the Compass Bank on the Atlanta Highway by Eastdale Mall in Montgomery, Alabama and demanded money from the teller. The teller felt threatened and put approximately $1,813.00, including bait money, into a bag supplied by defendant Evans. Evans left the bank and got into a van driven by defendant Charles R. Dunlap. The duo sped away but were seen by a private citizen who obtained a description of the van and a partial license plate number. The van was spotted by Auburn Police Officers and chased to Opelika, Alabama where the van ran off the road. Officers took the defendants into custody and found the bait money and loot inside the van. The deposits of Compass Bank are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Based upon the above described facts, information, observations, and training I believe that probable cause exists to believe Richard A. Evans and Charles R. Dunlap violated federal law by robbing Compass Bank.

John Drew, Special Agent
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23rd day of October, 2006.
